(Incorporated in the Republic of Singapore)

VOLUNTARY TRADING SUSPENSION

The Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Fabchem China Limited (the “Company”) refers to the trading halt called by the Company on 4 March 2019 and would like to inform shareholders of the Company (“Shareholders”) that the Company has received information on ongoing discussions in relation to a sale of the shares of the Company (“Shares”) by a certain shareholder which could lead to a possible general offer for all the Shares (“Possible Transaction”).

Shareholders should note that no definitive agreements have been entered into and there is no certainty that the Possible Transaction will proceed or be consummated as at the date of this announcement. In view of the ongoing discussions, the Board is of the opinion that a trading suspension would avoid any irregular movements in share price and prevent any irregular trading activities that may result from the leakage of any information which the Company has no control over. The trading suspension would also provide market certainty and prevent market confusion for its shareholders.

Further announcements will be made by the Company as and when there are any material developments on the Possible Transaction, and will endeavour to resume the trading of the Shares as soon as possible.

In the meantime, Shareholders are advised to exercise caution when dealing in the Shares and to refrain from taking any action in respect of the Shares which may be prejudicial to their interests. Shareholders who are in doubt as to the action they should take should consult their stockbroker, bank manager, solicitor or other professional advisers.
